

THE GIVEEMHELLBOYS

THE ORIGINAL
TWANG PUNK SOUND

It started with a Country train beat at a jam session with local punk rock and metal musicians in the Edmonton, Alberta music scene. What emerged can only be called Twang Punk... blurring the lines between Country, Punk, Heavy Metal, Roots, and Rock music.

Over the past decade, The Give 'Em Hell Boys have continued to evolve this distinct sound. Constantly gigging with a pickup truck full of songs in their repertoire, this four-piece band keeps grooving and growing stronger in the Canadian music Scene.

Their inaugural, self-produced release, Barn Burner, secured a nomination for Country Recording of the Year at the 2013 Edmonton Music Awards. With an impressive repertoire on festival stages, this band has graced audiences worldwide. They embarked on two tours across Western Europe, captivating audiences at festivals across Europe and North America, notably appearing at Big Valley Jamboree, North Country Fair, Beaumont Blues and Roots Fest, and Taste of Edmonton. Anticipate a fresh collection of tracks set to feature on their forthcoming album, currently in production.

The Give 'Em Hell Boys are a get your elbows swinging and your knees knocking "okay let's go!" good time fun-loving country band. Barn Burner is a wild-assed frolic through country and bluegrass laced with punk undertones, with moments of great playing and songwriting, and a fun time throughout.
